Native Advertising Packages

Native advertising is using professionally written articles to promote your company and products in a professional manner.

Your company or one of your products or services will be highlighted in a Vermont Maturity feature article. The article will be approximately 1,200 words and will be researched and written by a Vermont Maturity editor. The article will include photos (including photos on the front cover when it is the featured cover story) and your company contact information so interested readers can easily contact you. The article will also be published in the digital version of Vermont Maturity magazine and posted on the VermontMaturity.com website.

Cover Story Package

A cover story package includes an article of approximately 1,200 words that includes photos in the article and on the front cover of Vermont Maturity along with your company contact information at the end of the article. Price is only $1,295 for the front cover and approximately 3 additional pages.
